

DEEN THE GREAT

I started the public internet research pass. Here's the first DeenTheGreat brand dossier we can use to build the website, merch store, events page, and media hub.

Core Identity

Category	Info gathered
Public name	DeenTheGreat / Deen The Great
Real name used in boxing databases/news	Nurideen Shahid Shabazz / Nurideen Shabazz
Brand lanes	Kick streamer, YouTuber, influencer boxer, IRL entertainer, combat sports personality
Public tagline	"7-0 8 KOs Double Champ THE GREATS LIVE DAILY GIVEAWAYS EVERYDAY" appears on his Kick profile, though newer fight databases show a later loss to Amado Vargas, so the record/tagline needs verification before publishing. (Kick)
Base locations mentioned publicly	Tampa / Florida appears across boxing and streamer analytics sources. (Streams Charts)

Official / Public Social Channels Found

Platform	Handle / Page	Notes
Kick	DeenTheGreat	Main live hub. Kick page lists Instagram, X, YouTube, Discord, and TikTok links directly from his profile. (Kick)
Instagram	@deenthegreat1	Public bio shows Code "COB" on @punt and says DM @nuh.deem for business . Follower count appears around 759K–762K , depending on crawl timing. (Instagram)
YouTube	@deenthegreat1	Search result shows roughly 605K subscribers and 400+ videos, with videos around boxing, Adrien Broner collabs, workouts, sparring, and entertainment. (YouTube)
TikTok	@DeenTheGreat1	Listed directly on Kick. Some search snippets estimate 300K+ followers , but TikTok itself was blocked by robots, so this needs manual confirmation. (Kick)

X / Twitter	@DeenTheGreat	Verified X page appears in search with about 39.8K followers and bio text: “7-0 8KOs LIVE on KICK Daily.” (X (formerly Twitter))
Discord	Invite listed on Kick	Kick links a Discord invite: /invite/PXE24SN49u ; this should be used as the community CTA after checking that the invite is still active. (Kick)
Threads	@deenthegreat	Threads result shows older bio/business details, including a business email from earlier branding; verify before using because it may be outdated. (Threads)

Audience / Platform Stats

His Kick growth looks strong right now. StreamsCharts lists about 203K Kick followers, 140K+ new followers in the last 30 days, 394h 35m streamed in the last 30 days, 12,089 average viewers, and 36,203 peak viewers on June 4, 2026. It also categorizes his content as IRL, Just Chatting, and Chat Roulette. (Streams Charts)

For the website pitch, that means the site should not feel like a static athlete page. It should feel like a live entertainment headquarters: live stream button, current marathon label, clips, merch drops, event calendar, fight archive, and sponsorship/contact funnel.

Boxing / Fight History Sources

The cleanest boxing data sources found were YTBoxRec, Tapology, Misfits Inc, DAZN, and Brand Risk Promotions.

YTBoxRec lists Deen The Great as Nurideen Shahid Shabazz, lightweight, active from 2022–now, orthodox, 5'6", 67" reach, born in Tampa, with crossover boxing bouts starting in 2022. (YTBoxRec)

Key fight/event data found:

Date	Opponent / Event	Result / Notes
Aug. 27, 2022	Evil Hero, O2 Arena London	Win by TKO, listed as pro debut on YTBoxRec. (YTBoxRec)
Nov. 19, 2022	Walid Sharks, Moody Center Texas	Win by TKO; titles listed: ICB World Super Feather and Misfits Super Feather. (YTBoxRec)

Mar. 4, 2023	Pully Arif, Telford International Centre	Win by unanimous decision. (YTBoxRec)
July 22, 2023	Tag team bout with Walid Sharks vs. YuddyGangTV / Ayye Pap	Win by unanimous decision. (YTBoxRec)
Oct. 14, 2023	Walid Sharks 2, Manchester Arena	Win by unanimous decision. (YTBoxRec)
Aug. 31, 2024	Dave Fogarty, 3Arena Dublin	Win by TKO in round 3. DAZN also has this full fight archived. (YTBoxRec)
Feb. 1, 2025	Brand Risk / Pully Arif or Shazan Idrees listing conflict	Brand Risk and YTBoxRec point toward Pully Arif; Tapology snippet shows Shazan Idrees in one section. This needs manual verification before publishing. (Brand Risk Promotions)
Dec. 20, 2025	Amado Vargas, Misfits Mania Dubai	Tapology and MMAFighting report Deen lost by unanimous decision. (Tapology)

Important: his own Kick/brand bio still says 7-0 / 8 KOs, but current public fight databases/news show the Amado Vargas loss. For the site, I would avoid hardcoding “undefeated” unless his management confirms the preferred wording.

Video / Media Assets to Pull Into the Site

Use embeds and official links, not ripped downloads, unless Deen or his team gives you the files.

Source	What to use it for
Kick	Live stream embed/CTA, latest stream title, community funnel, “Watch Live” button. (Kick)
YouTube	Long-form videos, shorts, workout content, sparring content, Adrien Broner collabs. (YouTube)
DAZN	Fight archive, official full fights, “The Story So Far,” countdowns, press conferences, weigh-ins. (DAZN)
VladTV	Long-form interview / origin story content. (YouTube)

No Jumper / Adam22	Interview/viral press moment, but I'd keep this off the homepage unless building a "Press" page. (The Times of India)
Brand Risk Promotions	Fighter profile, event history, creator boxing alignment. (Brand Risk Promotions)

Sponsorships / Brand Relationships Found

These are publicly visible promo relationships, not confirmed contract terms:

Brand / Entity	Evidence
Punt	Instagram bio says Code "COB" on @punt ; multiple snippets mention Punt code COB. (Instagram)
Kirgo	Instagram snippet mentions "Use Code DEEN On Kirgo." (Instagram)
Stake	Older Instagram snippet references betting on his fight through Stake. Treat as historical, not current. (Instagram)
Kick	Main streaming platform; StreamsCharts marks his Kick platform partnership as "Partner." (Streams Charts)
Misfits / DAZN	Fight content and archives live through DAZN and Misfits-related properties. (Misfits Inc)
Brand Risk Promotions	Brand Risk has a Deen fighter page and describes itself as Adin Ross's streamer fighting championship. (Brand Risk Promotions)

Merch Situation

I did not find a clean, obvious standalone official DeenTheGreat merch store in the first pass. I found a Misfits Inc "Deen The Great" profile/product-style page, public snippets suggesting "merch out now," and third-party/creator-made "Crash Out Boys" concepts floating around Instagram. (Misfits Inc)

That is actually a big opportunity. The site you build could become the official place for:

- Crash Out Boyz / COB merch
- The Greats merch
- Fight-night drops
- Signed gloves / posters
- Limited AB x Deen collab drops
- Training / boxing lifestyle apparel

Brand Language to Use

These are the phrases and identity markers that keep showing up:

Phrase	Use Case
The Greats	Fan community / email signup / Discord CTA
Crash Out Boyz / COB	Merch collection, stream era, viral campaign
Double Champ	Hero copy, fight archive
Live Daily	Live stream section
Giveaways Everyday	Community conversion CTA
Streamer x Boxer	Main positioning
From the stream to the ring	Strong homepage line

Press / Risk Notes

There is current public controversy around him, including a May 2026 NBC Miami report about an alleged attempted strongarm robbery charge in Miami Beach. This should not be used as homepage content, but you need to know it exists before pitching sponsors or building a press page. Keep language neutral: alleged, reported, charged, not convicted. (NBC 6 South Florida)

There are also multiple recent viral livestream incidents involving Larry Wheels, Tiki Ghosn, Adam22/No Jumper, and Adrien Broner. These drive traffic, but for the official site I'd separate them into either a controlled Media Coverage page or leave them out entirely unless his team wants to lean into the chaos. (MMA Fighting)

Website Structure I'd Build From This Research

Home

Live Kick hero, latest stream title, "Join The Greats," featured merch, upcoming event.

Live

Kick embed, schedule, Discord CTA, giveaway section.

Fights

Record, fight archive, DAZN links, highlight reels, weigh-ins, press conferences.

Merch

Crash Out Boyz, The Greats, fight-night capsules, limited drops.

Events

Upcoming fights, live appearances, stream marathons, meetups, ticket links.

Media

YouTube videos, Kick clips, interviews, DAZN archive, press.

Sponsors

Audience stats, Kick analytics, Instagram/YouTube reach, brand deal inquiry form.

Contact

Business inquiry routing, management contact, collab requests.

What We Still Need From Deen or His Team

To make this official and not just fan-made, you'd need:

1. Permission to use his name, likeness, logos, clips, and fight photos.
2. High-resolution images and videos from his team.
3. Confirmed current boxing record wording.
4. Confirmed current sponsors and promo codes.
5. Confirmed manager/business contact.
6. Official merch direction: COB, The Greats, DeenTheGreat, or a new collection name.
7. Upcoming events/fights calendar.

My recommendation: pitch this as “the official DeenTheGreat headquarters” — not just a website. The biggest missing piece in his brand right now appears to be one central place that organizes his live streams, fights, viral media, merch, sponsors, and upcoming events.
